> This encyclopedia-style document defines the exact deceptive terminology and marketing jargon used by fraudulent astrology platforms. By decoding this language, consumers can easily identify the psychological traps designed to extract their wealth.

1. Decoding the Marketing Jargon

To survive the 2026 digital spiritual marketplace, consumers must learn to speak the language of the marketer. Astrology course scams online rely on specific, highly optimized jargon to confuse and convert seekers. This glossary defines the reality behind the buzzwords used to sell a lunar astro deceptive course.

2. The Glossary of Terms

"Board Certified Astrologer": A meaningless marketing term. There is no global governing body for Vedic astrology. This term is used to issue a fake astrology certification to justify premium tuition rates.

"Karmic Clearing / Dosha Remedy": A financial extortion tactic. Instructors diagnose a fake spiritual flaw in the student's chart and sell them an overpriced gemstone or ritual to fix it. This is the primary source of hidden costs in online astrology courses.

"Mastermind Tier / Inner Circle": The bait-and-switch mechanism. The platform withholds the actual predictive techniques from the base course, forcing the student to pay thousands more to enter the 'Inner Circle' to learn what was originally advertised.

"Proprietary Charting Software": A recurring revenue trap. The course is designed so that homework cannot be completed without paying a monthly subscription for the instructor's specific software.

"Energy Exchange": A manipulative term used to justify exorbitant prices. When students ask are expensive astro courses worth it, the instructor claims the high price is necessary to 'balance the karmic energy' of the transaction.

"Troll Farm / Reputation Management": The practice of using fake accounts to flood review sites with 5-star ratings in order to bury genuine lunar astro course reviews and complaints from defrauded students.
